Re: United States v. Cohen, Criminal No. WDQ-14-0310

Dear Mr. Cohen:

I have received your April 20, 2015 letter seeking guidance about the May 4, 2015 evidentiary hearing. During the hearing, the Court will receive evidence that you or the government may submit about the pending motions that require factual findings.

Additionally, as noted in the Court's Order about your Request for Rule 17 subpoenas, see ECF No. 280 (sealed), Fed. R. Crim. P. 17(b) (b) permits the issuance of a subpoena for a named witness when the defendant's ex parte application shows both an inability to pay and the necessity for the witness's presence. Otherwise, a subpoena will not be issued.

Very truly yours,

William D. Quarles, Jr.
United States District Judge
